

Kaufmann & Co.

Fall Opening

Millinery, Outer Garments, and Accessories.

A Superb Style Show Depicting the Proper Apparel for Fall & Winter

Opening Days:

Tuesday, September 21st. Wednesday, September 22d.
Thursday, September 23d.

Exclusive Pattern Hats from the Most Distinguished Paris Milliners—

Virot, Susanne, Georgette, Pouyenne, Maison Lewis, Esther Meyer and Others

Have sent us their best productions this season. These wonderful creations have proven an inspiration to our own milliners, and the result is that we have hundreds of beautiful and original styles for your inspection.

The collection as a whole is the most authoritative in style that Richmond has ever seen.

Suits, Wraps and Costumes.

The new fashions as exemplified in our opening exhibit will be of intense interest to every woman.

The new creations express the best thoughts of the world's greatest designers of artistic fashion.

Beauty and charm enter into every phase of these garments.

There is beauty and richness in the fabrics—beauty and delicacy in the coloring—beauty and distinctiveness in the style.

A Kaufmann Suit, Dress or Wrap has a certain elegance of finish that is associated only with the highest order of custom tailoring.

No Cards. We bid you welcome.

...SOCIETY...

MRS. M. J. DARDEN, of Newsum's, Va., announces the engagement of her daughter, Minnie Newman, to Judge Joseph B. Prince, of Washington, D. C. The date for their wedding has not been set, but it is expected that the marriage will take place in November, probably about Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Darden is well known and popular in social circles in Virginia and has many friends here who will be interested in the announcement of her engagement. She has often visited in Richmond, and with her mother and sister has traveled extensively abroad.

Judge Prince is a well-known lawyer and formerly lived in Southampton county. He is well and favorably known throughout the State, having held many positions of honor and trust.

Virginia at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Scott, after spending several weeks at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, have gone to Newport, to remain until late in September. They will remain some time in New York, and on their return will go to their home in Albemarle, to remain there until the middle of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott have entertained a number of week-end parties during the summer at "Royal Orchard."

Misses Netherland at Battle Creek.

Misses Alice and Emma Netherland, of this city, are now at Battle Creek Sanatorium, Mich., after a four months' tour of the Western section of the country. They visited the family of Dr. Albert Sherrill, in South Dakota, in the spring, traveling seventy-five miles by stage. They took in the Seattle Exposition, and later enjoyed a cruise of two weeks through Alaska. They went as far north as Sitka, Juneau, the capital, Ketchikan and other places of interest. They will return to Richmond within the next few weeks.

Ex-Gov. Montague Sails for Belgium.

Ex-Gov. Montague left Friday night for New York, from which city he sailed Saturday, in company with Hon. Walter C. Noyes, of Connecticut, United States circuit judge, and Charles C. Burlingham, of the New York bar, for Brussels. Mr. Montague is one of four men chosen to represent the United States at the third diplomatic conference on maritime law. They will be gone probably two months.

Prominent Engagement.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Janet Southgate Lemmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Southgate Lemmon, and granddaughter of the late Colonel Dulaney, of "Welbourne," to Richard Julian Rossel, Miss Lemmon is from Baltimore, and is one of the recognized belles and beauties of that city.

The wedding is set for October 2, to take place at "Welbourne," near Middleburg, Va., the historic home of the Dulaneys. Society from all parts of Virginia and Maryland will attend the ceremony, and there will be a great deal of entertaining incident to the wedding.

Miss Lemmon is widely connected throughout the State and is descended from some of Virginia's most distinguished sons. After her marriage she will make her home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Ford in Northampton. Mrs. Harriet Ford, who for several years has made her home in Richmond, at 321 West Grace Street, has been traveling in the North all during the summer months, spending some time with friends in New Jersey and New York.

Mrs. Ford is now located in Northampton, Mass., where Smith College is situated. She has relatives there and will probably remain in New England for many months, much to the regret of her Richmond friends.

Miss Gilmour's Wedding.

Quite an interesting wedding to Richmond people was celebrated in Elkton, Va., on Wednesday, when Miss Bertha Gilmour, daughter of Matthew Gilmour, of 2242 Park Avenue, and Huston Waller, of this city, were married. Miss Gilmour had been staying at the Elkton Hotel for a few weeks, having gone there with her friend, Miss Bliss Williams, whom she had been visiting at Arvonla, in Buckingham county, since leaving Virginia Beach early in the summer, and Mr. Waller went up to Elkton the first of the week.

Miss Gilmour was attended by Miss Nancy Jones, of Washington, and Miss Harriet Lebrick, of Elkton, as her maids of honor. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Waller will make their home in Richmond.

Miss Dabney to Study Art in New York.

Miss Jeannette Dabney, of Rio Vista, has returned from Charlottesville, where she was a student at the summer school of art at the University of Virginia, on a scholarship offered by Mr. Cootes, the director, to the Art School of Richmond.

In a competition at the University school Miss Dabney won a scholarship for the session of 1909-'10 to the New York School of Art. She leaves for New York shortly.

Williams' Memorial Circle.

There will be an important called meeting of the Williams Memorial Circle on Tuesday afternoon, September 21, at 4:30 o'clock, at 422 East Franklin Street.

Every member is urged to attend.

Powell-Early. Mr. and Mrs. Leverett S. Early, of Evinston, Campbell county, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sara Breckenridge, to Dr. William Claiborne Powell, of Petersburg. The marriage will take place in Lynchburg early in October.

Return to Richmond.

Miss Nannie Franklin and Miss Lotie May Hurt have returned to Richmond from a very pleasant stay with Mrs. Durrell Sanders at her home in Crewe, Va. Mrs. Sanders was also entertaining Miss Ada Paris, of Keyville, Va., and Miss Grace Franklin and Homer A. Hurt, of this city. Her guests were honored at several informal social affairs, and altogether had a delightful time during their visit in Southern Virginia.

Informal Reception to Students.

Invitations have been issued to an informal reception which will be given at Grace Street Baptist Church, corner Foushee and Grace Streets, on next Friday, September 24, from 8:15 to 11 o'clock, to the incoming students of Richmond. There will be music and refreshments and a cordial invitation is extended to every student.

There will also be special services at Grace Street Church on September 26, morning and evening. In Rockbridge County, Thomas Purcell joined Mrs. Purcell at Rockbridge Baths last Tuesday, and with their children they expect to go over to Lexington for a short stay, and will probably visit Natural Bridge before coming back to Richmond, about October 1.

Later the Purcells will move into their new home at Westhampton.

Richmond Girl Bridesmaid.

A wedding of much interest here and in South Carolina was celebrated Wednesday afternoon in the Lester Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Bennettsville, S. C., when Miss Nan Lealand Breeden became the bride of Frank Boyd Moore, Rev. A. T. Dunlop being the officiating clergyman.

The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Breeden, of Bennettsville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore, of McCall, S. C.

The color scheme was carried out in violet and white; the Columbia College colors, Miss Breeden having been a popular student of that school. Violets, ferns and bamboo decorated the church, and the altar was lighted with white candles.

The bridal party passed through arches on each side of the church, covered with violet blossoms and ever-

(Continued on Third Page.)

PATRICIAN
Shoes for Women

Most any shoe looks good—new; but how long will that "good look" last after wear. That's the test.

PATRICIAN Shoes will wear as long as good leather and materials can—retaining their shape until completely worn out.

The showing of PATRICIAN conceptions for this season is a refreshing change from styles a few months ago.

Graceful, modish dressed women are particular in the selection of footwear; therefore, we invite your inspection of the PATRICIAN conceptions. Styles certain to please the most discriminating and diverse tastes.

Boots, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00.

Seymour Sycle,
11 West Broad Street.

You May Not Need to Change
Now

But when the necessity of a change is pressed harder on you by the action of coffee on your nerves, heart and stomach, of course you'll be farther down the hill.

Coffee may act slowly in some cases. It does act sure in 4 out of 5.

When you get too bad off, quit coffee and use

POSTUM

"There's a Reason."

Postum Cereal Company, Ltd.,
Battle Creek, Mich.

DREYFUS & CO.,
(Incorporated)

201 East Broad Street,

Will shortly announce the exact date of their initial opening.

It might be of interest to the ladies to know that we will have much to entertain them—in fact, a few days' waiting will bring to Richmond

The Most Beautiful Display of Outer Garments Ever Shown in This City.

It would be wise to wait.

Dreyfus & Co., Inc.,

GEO. B. ROBSON, Manager.